

MASTER CLASS

DANCER'S EDGE

WITH KARL MUNDT AUGUST 23rd, 6:00-8:00PM

Karl Mundt's dynamic style and enthusiasm have made him one of the most sought after choreographers and teachers in the United States. He has traveled the globe setting choreography and conducting workshops and master classes. He was a guest presenter at the 2018 annual coaches conference in Sydney Australia. He judged and taught intensives for JAMfest in Tokyo, Japan. In 2014 he traveled to Finland, and choreographed their bronze medal winning pom routine at the 2014 ICU World Championships. Karl has served as a judge and master teacher at the Australian All-Star Dance Championship in Sydney. He was part of the choreography team for the 2011 Super Bowl Halftime Show, featuring Usher and The Black Eyed Peas. He choreographed a jazz piece for Champion Legacy All-Stars which won the GOLD medal at the 2018 Dance Worlds! His choreography for the renowned Brigham Young University Dance Team won the 2016 Div 1A Open dance National title and the choreography award at NDA- the 2nd year in a row. In 2018 the team placed 2nd by the slimmest of margins.

His work with the Univ. of Minnesota helped them win the 2014 National Collegiate Championship- their 5th straight title. The team finished as Runner up in 2015 & 2016. In the 2011 dance season, his choreography and inspirational teaching style helped the University of Minnesota, San Diego State University and the Eden Prairie Pom Squad win national championships. Additionally, his choreography helped Team USA win the gold medal (Jazz Div.) at the 2009 & 2010 ICU World Championships. With over 70 Countries represented, the championship was the first of its kind & part of a larger campaign to include competitive dance in the Olympic Games. His work has been nationally televised on ESPN, CBS, NBC & FOX.

Karl has danced in commercials for Adidas, Nike, Sun Micro Systems and for national tours with New York City Theatrical Events. He has performed in a variety of stage productions in Los Angeles, New York, Las Vegas and Atlantic City. Karl has set choreography on models for print work and for national dance wear companies & has done freelance work for Dance Spirit magazine.

He has choreographed for several National and World Champions including: Utah Valley, The University of Minnesota, Clovis West Song Leaders (2015 USA Champions in Intermediate Pom) Champion Legacy All Stars (2014 NDA Jazz Champions) University of St. Thomas, University of Cincinnati, University of Louisville, Hawaii Pacific University, San Diego State, University of Illinois-Urbana, Eastern Washington Elite All Stars, Los Alamitos High School, The Dance Studio of Fresno, and Eden Prairie Pom Squad. His choreography has been performed by several sports dance teams throughout the US and Canada, including the Boston Celtics, Sacramento Kings and Portland Trailblazers.

One of Karl's greatest strengths is his ability to inspire people to go outside of their comfort zone, challenge themselves, and ultimately become better dancers.
